2.	7.
3.	8.
4.	9.
5.	10.

Students can either choose a snap word or 'r' controlled vowel that is tricky for them in spelling or reading. Students will:

1. Study the chosen word looking at the vowels, spelling patterns, etc.
2. Write the word with a pencil first from memory.
3. Check the correct spelling for any bloopers.
4. Trace over the word with a colored marker, crayon or colored pencil.
5. Pick another color and trace over it again.
6. Pick one more color and trace over it again.
